SAINTS

- Andonina the New Martyr
- David the Archbishop

The Great Lent in the Orthodox Church begins tomorrow, Monday, March 2nd. Let us prayerfully contemplate this spiritual journey, identifying our approach to prayer, reading Scripture, spiritual edification, fasting and service to others.

VISITORS
We welcome you to worship with us today! Whether you are an Orthodox Christian, or this is your first visit to an Orthodox Church, we are pleased to have you with us. Members of our Welcoming Committee may be found in the entry area of the Cathedral (outer Narthex) near the candle stand to assist you in signing up for our mailing list and provide you with information about our Cathedral.

Holy Communion in the Orthodox Christian Church is reserved for baptized/confirmed Orthodox Christians who, additionally, have prepared themselves to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. We receive frequently, but not casually.

Orthodox Christians who are not prepared to receive the Holy Eucharist, non-Orthodox Christians, and non-Christians are welcome to come forward at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy to receive the Antidoron, which is blessed bread, and to join us in fellowship.

Τὸ φαιδρὸν τῆς Ἀναστάσεως κήρυκα, ἐκ τοῦ Ἀγγέλου μαθούσαι αἱ τοῦ Κυρίου Μαθητρίαι, καὶ τὴν προγονικὴν ἀπόφασιν ἀπορρίπτασαι, τοῖς Ἀποστόλοις καυχώμεναι ἔλεγον. Ἐσκύλευται ὁ θάνατος, ἠγέρθη Χριστὸς ὁ Θεός, δωρούμενος τῷ κόσμῳ τὸ μέγα ἔλεος.

Church Hymn (Green hymnal pp. 109 & 108)

Blessed are You, O Christ our God; You made the fishermen all-wise By sending down upon them the Holy Spirit, And through them You drew the world into Your net. Glory to You Who love mankind.

Kontakion

Ο You Who are the Source of all wisdom and discernment, Instructor of the ignorant and champion of the poor, Strengthen our hearts, O Master, And grant us understanding, O Word of the Father, Bring words to our lips, that nothing would keep us From crying out to You: In Your compassion have mercy on us, for we have fallen.

Thank you.
EPISTLE READING: St. Paul’s First Letter to the Romans 13:11-14; 14:1-4
Brethren, salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed; the night is far gone, the day is at hand. Let us then cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us conduct ourselves becomingly as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. As for the man who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not for disputes over opinions. One believes he may eat anything, while the weak man eats only vegetables. Let not him who eats despise him who abstains, and let not him who abstains pass judgment on him who eats; for God has welcomed him. Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for God is able to make him stand.

The Lord said, “If you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
“Neither do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a stand, and it gives light to all. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.
“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.”

FIRST WEEK OF GREAT LENT

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.  (3)
Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and forever, and to the ages of ages.  Amen.
All-Holy Trinity, have mercy on us.  Lord, be gracious unto our sins.  Master, pardon our transgressions.  Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities, for Your Name’s sake.
Lord have mercy.  (3)
Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and forever, and to the ages of ages.  Amen.
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.  Amen.

Psalm 121 (NKJV)

I will lift up my eyes to the hills; From whence comes my help?
2 My help comes from the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.
3 He will not allow your foot to be moved; He who keeps you will not slumber.
4 Behold, He who keeps Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
5 The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade at your right hand.
6 The sun shall not strike you by day; nor the moon by night.
7 The Lord shall preserve you from all evil; He shall preserve your soul.
8 The Lord shall preserve your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore.

Prayer

Gracious and merciful Lord, forbearing and generous in mercy, hear my prayer and heed the voice of my entreaty.  Give me a sign of Your favor.  Lead me in Your way, that I may walk in Your truth; gladden my heart, that I may be in awe of Your holy name, for You are great in the wonders You perform.  You alone are God, and among all deities, none is Your like, O Lord: mighty in mercy and benevolent in might, helping, comforting, and saving all who trust in Your holy name.
For to You belong all glory, honor, and worship to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.  Amen.

Prayer of Ephraim

Lord and Master of my life, do not give me the spirit of sloth, vain curiosity, lust of power, and idle talk.
But give to me Your servant the spirit of prudence, humility, patience, and love.
Yes, Lord and King, grant me to see my own sins, and not to judge my brothers and sisters, for you are blessed unto the ages of ages, amen!

This lesson on forgiveness comes the day before Clean Monday, the first day of Great Lent. As Christians, we must forgive others and seek their forgiveness. We reaffirm this every time we pray in the Lord’s Prayer, “forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.” In His ministry, Jesus makes it clear that God forgives us only if we forgive others. This Gospel passage additionally draws our attention to how we should approach the Lenten period and where our focus should be—on laying up treasures in heaven. On this Sunday, we also commemorate all the saints who excelled in ascetic living (living a spiritually disciplined life). We look to these holy ascetics as examples to inspire us toward fasting, praying, and doing acts of mercy. Today is the last day dairy products are permitted before the fast.

For Consideration

- What happens if we do not forgive people who do us wrong?

- How should we fast? What are ways we can “lay up” for ourselves treasures in heaven?

- What does this Gospel passage mean for our lives?
TO DO TOGETHER

Agape Canister
This Sunday has been designated Orthodox Christian Mission Center (OCMC) Sunday. Take some time to learn about this ministry and ways you can support it. Consider participating in the Agape Canister program by collecting spare change during the Lenten period to further missionary activities. Visit www.ocmc.org for some more information.

Fast as a Family
Take some time to talk about fasting as a family. Consider having family cooking night where everyone helps to plan and prepare a Lenten meal. Consider making extra and donating it to a shelter or someone in need. This may by more work for the adults initially, but the fruit will be worth the effort.

Forgiveness Vespers
As tomorrow is Clean Monday, today we seek forgiveness not only from our family members and friends but also from our parish family. Make plans to attend Forgiveness Vespers as a family. In addition, ask your priest for prayers from the service to read at home as a family. After reading these prayers, have each family member ask for forgiveness with a prostration and a kiss of peace.

CLOSING PRAYER

Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Both now and forever, Amen.

The season of the virtues now has come, and the Judge is at the door. Let us not hold back with darkened face, but let us keep the fast, offering tears, repentance, and almsgiving; and let us cry: our sins are more in number than the sands of the sea; Deliverer of all, forgive each one of us, that we may receive an incorruptible crown.

-from the Vespers of Forgiveness Sunday

FINAL THOUGHT

There once lived a holy archbishop who was sought out by pilgrims because of his great spiritual insight. As his popularity and the demands on his time grew, he wished to retreat into a life of noetic prayer—ceaseless prayer of the mind and heart. He was granted permission to move back to his native island where he lived more fully a monastic life. One day, a man desperately knocked at the monastery door, he had committed a murder and was trying to flee from the villagers seeking revenge. The man confessed his sins to the holy archbishop, now the abbot of the monastery. As he listened, the abbot realized that the person who the man had murdered was the abbot’s own brother. God helped the abbot see into the heart of this man and see how sorry he was. He forgave the man who murdered his brother and read the confessional prayers of absolution. The abbot then helped the man to escape the authorities so that he could live the rest of his life in prayer and repentance at a monastery. This holy abbot is St. Dionysios of Zakynthos. He exemplifies true forgiveness.
2020 Stewardship - The 2020 Stewardship goal is $770,000. As of 2/25/2020, the following 318 Holy Trinity families submitted a 2020 Stewardship Pledge for a total pledge amount of $728,161. The total amount received is $122,011.80. Stewardship forms are available in the Founders' Walk and online at holytrinityindy.org.
