

ALL THINGS ARE GIFTS. WE ARE THE STEWARDS.

Your 2011 stewardship pledge to Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church of Indianapolis

We are stewards of a new facility – and a new location from which to promulgate the Good News of Christ’s Resurrection. This calls for every parishioner’s commitment.

This commitment has two parts. The first is of time and talents. A parish where parishioners do not give sacrificially and freely of their talents & time is dead. The second part is financial. Money to the Church is what fuel is to an engine. Holy Trinity cannot move forward without it. Your financial pledge pays for things from lighting and landscaping to copy paper and communion wine – and everything in between.

Please complete this form thoughtfully and prayerfully. Reflect on the capacities the Lord wants you to serve in – given your available time and God-given talents – and check the appropriate boxes in the Time and Talents section. Ponder the depth and abundance of the material blessings God has given you and check the ANNUAL AMOUNT you wish to devote in gratitude for His blessings. Finally, be sure to provide your personal information, especially any email address. This helps us better communicate with and serve you, and will be especially helpful in sending you our eUpdate.

Our budgetary year begins January 1, 2011. Please return this form as early as possible before then so that your Parish Council can continue the many programs, services and outreach ministries of our parish – along with the new and innovative ones that are yet to come! May our Lord bless you abundantly.
